

Purpose

The purpose of this quick reference guide is to step through the process of creating a Payee Allowance of Record Type Payroll. The intended audience for this document are System Administrators / Standard Users.

Steps

Create a new Payroll Allowance record

The Payroll Payee Allowance record is used to define Allowances that are paid to an Employee within Pay Batch processing. The record holds general Assignment information, Pay Codes & Rates.

Create a Payroll Payee Allowance by following the below steps:

1. Navigate to the Payee record.
 - a. To identify a Payee record from an Employee record, enter the Employee name into the Global Search (see Figure 1).
 - b. Select the Employee record from the suggestions provided.
 - c. Open the Related tab (see Figure 2).
 - d. Identify the Payee related list.
 - e. Select the Payee record.

5. Populate the following required fields ONLY if you are using an Allowance Template, otherwise please skip to the next step (see Figure 5):
 - a. Payee Allowance Name
 - b. Payee
 - c. Employee
 - d. Payment Entity
 - e. Effective Date
 - f. Allowance Template

The Allowance Rate Type, Allowance Rate and Pay Code fields will be populated automatically upon saving when an Allowance Template is used to populate the Allowance Template fields in step 5.

6. Populate the following required fields to provide the base details of the record. This step is applicable when you are NOT using the Allowance Templates (see Figure 5):
 - a. Payee Allowance Name
 - b. Payee
 - c. Employee
 - d. Payment Entity
 - e. Effective Date
 - f. Allowance Rate Type
 - g. Pay Code
 - h. Allowance Rate
7. Populate the following optional fields as required:
 - a. To directly relate the Payee Allowance to a specific role, populate the Assignment field. If the Allowance applies to all Assignments relating to the Payee, the Assignment field should be left blank.
 - b. To prevent the Status of the Payee Allowance from being automatically updated by the Automatic Status Update Scheduled Job, check the Exclude From Auto Update checkbox
8. To define any required rules and limits that will be used in assessing and determining Allowances payable, populate the following optional fields as required. If left blank the rule / limit will not apply:
 - a. Quantity
 - b. Based on Quantity Worked
 - c. Quantity Worked Minimum
 - d. Quantity Worked Maximum
 - e. Expiry Date
9. Click on the Save button.

The Timesheet Allowances are generally created by the use of Payee Timesheet Allowance Template Groups, more than by the use of Allowance Templates. Payroll Allowances however will utilise Allowance Templates to autocomplete some fields, or will create the record from scratch.

The Pay Batch Event field will be automatically populated upon saving the record, and should not be manually entered.

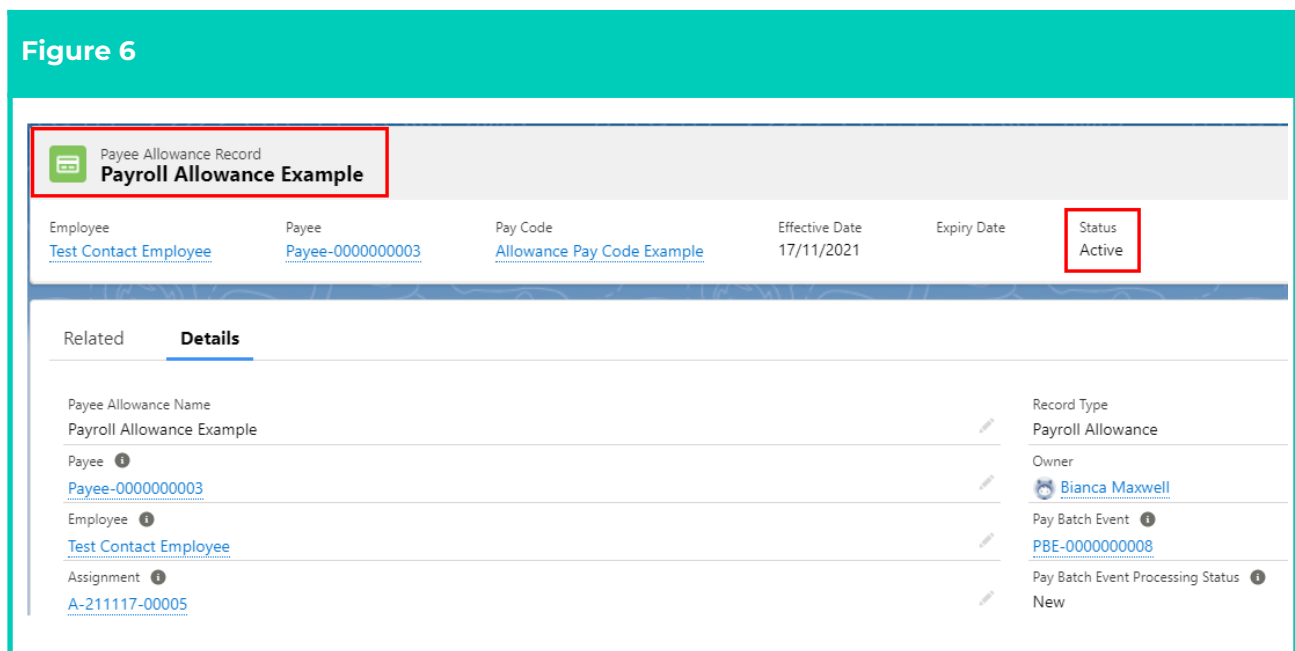

The Allowance Statistics fields provide data on the usage of the Allowance record based on processed Payroll data, and should never be manually entered or overridden.

The Status of the record will be automatically updated upon saving the record, based on the Effective Date and Expiry Date (see Figure 6).

A new Payee Payroll Allowance is now created (see Figure 6).
